The Land Grant Road.

The Madison Patriot has a very long article on the subject which now engrosses attention at the Capitol, directed particularly at papers and parties in Milwaukee which have either, as it alleges, assailed Madison, or taken a course hostile to its supposed interests. In its article, we find the following paragraph

Even the Sentinel, so usually fair in all things, has given in somewhat to this insolent foray.—Not that its editors are mistrusted of the authorship. The writer is too well known. He is a participant of the Monk's Ball established here—and his writings smell of the bottle so freely used in that interesting location. For that reason, if no other, his outpourings should have met with a different reception from respectable editors

The Patriot must have borrowed somebody else's spectacles to find any articles in the Sentinel which can be alluded to in such a manner.—No one except its editors have furnished articles on the subject to the Sentinel, and no editorial article has appeared in our columns against which any fair-minded man can justly take exception. We have argued and asked that Columbus, in looking towards a Main Trunk connection, should be made a terminal point in the road. And we have said that, if either Madison or Columbus must be left out, we think that it ought to be Madison rather than Columbus. If we are driven to that alternative, we certainly shall urge such a course, as we have a right to do, and good reasons are plenty for so doing.

The Apportionment Bill.

We have stated several times that forty days notice was necessary for elections, in view of the delay of the Apportionment Bill. We believed that such was the case, but after close search yesterday were unable to find this provision in the Statutes. They do require that the writ shall be issued between the 1st of July and the 1st of September. The latter day having long since passed, we presume that Chap. 6, Sec. 1, page 61, furnishes a sufficient authority for holding the election at all events. But if a new Apportionment Bill passes, it is so manifestly necessary that the people should know its provisions so that they may make the arrangements for the district elections, that we trust the Secretary of State will not lose a single day in issuing new writs, for public information.

Gov. Reeder's Letter.

We need not ask the careful perusal of this admirable letter. The name and standing of the writer will secure it. Tried republicans will find their hearts strengthened for the contest by reading it, and Democrats will find in it the manly utterance of a faithful personal friend of Mr. Buchanan, who is forced to leave him, on the one great issue. It is the calm, deliberate judgment of an honest and true man, speaking out in every sentence. What he says, he believes.

WAUKESHA COUNTY CONVENTION.—It will be seen that the Republican nominating Convention of Waukesha County is called for the 11th of October.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Thursday, Sept. 24.

No report yet from the Land Grant Committee, and an increasing desire, on all sides, to get the business out of their hands, and fairly before the Legislature. At the meeting of the Committee last evening, after a deal of canvassing, the list of corporators for the North Western line was finally agreed upon, and within a very few minutes the names of the favored seventeen were known all over town, and undergoing a severe scrutiny. They are as follows Dr. Hoyt, of St Croix, A. Johnson, La Crosse, S Hale, Kenosha, A. G. Knight, Racine; J Lander, Dodge, B Schleisinger, Washington, J Dimmock, Rock; L J. Farwell, Dane, D W. Jones, Lafayette, Messmore, Iowa J. H Rountree, Grant, W. D. McIndoe, Marathon, Dr. Fisher, Rock (Beloit), J. Arnold, Portage, E Cramer, C. E. Jenkins, Milwaukee; and Moses M. Strong. The action of the Committee, the moment it became public, was very sharply criticized

A glance at this list of names will show that the majority are Democrats and adherents of the Barstow dynasty. Moreover, with few exceptions, they are men but little known out of this State, and without the means, or the credit, to carry out an enterprise of the magnitude proposed They could neither command confidence at home, nor obtain capital from abroad It is not to such hands that the people will consent to trust the administration of the Land Grant. Better to return the grant to Congress, than to put it into the keeping of incompetent, inexperienced, or untrustworthy men. I have no idea, however, that there is any danger that the Legislature will ratify the doings of the Committee, either in the selection of the names, or as to the other details of the bill Indeed, there is a general disposition to rip up the private arrangements of the Select Committee—which is said to have been packed to suit pecuniary interests—and to get up a new bill. I still hope that the grant will fall into good hands, and be faithfully administered for the best interests of the State

In the House this morning, the Select Committee to whom was referred the bill to suppress Intemperance, &c, reported unanimously in favor of its indefinite postponement. The Assembly will no doubt concur in the recommendation of the Committee. A number of appropriations were passed under suspension of the rules. The Apportionment Bill came back from the Select Committee with a recommendation that the House concur in the amendments adopted yesterday and pass the bill. The Assembly immediately resolved itself into Committee of the Whole for the consideration of the bill, put through all the amendments with a rush, and reported the bill, as amended, back to the House. The House at once concurred in all the amendments, suspended the rules and passed the bill, almost unanimously.

In the SENATE this morning, Mr. Clement introduced a resolution, which lies over under the rule, providing for the adjournment of the Legislature on Tuesday next. It does not look as if the Legislature could get away for a fortnight yet. Bills have passed authorizing the City of Milwaukee to issue $40,000 of bonds to complete the Harbor at the Straight Cut and $50,000 for building bridges, in relation to the assessment of property in Janesville and providing a code of procedure for the Watertown Police Court. The Senate then, after an hour's session, adjourned

The corporators for the South Eastern Land grant, from Fond du Lac to Lake Superior, agreed upon by the Committee, are as follows; Julius White, H. Haertel, Wm. Sanderson, C. P. Hiller, Charles Knehn, Wm. Scott, Anson Ballard, —— Davids, E. L. Phillips, B. F. Moore, John Bradley, J. D. Doty, and three to be appointed by the Governor This list is better than the other, though by no means so strong as it should be

It is apparent that the selection of the corporators on both of these lines has been governed too much by local and personal considerations, and that very little, if any regard, has been paid to the permanent interests of the State, and the great objects of the grant. This, however, has all been done in Committee, and under the rose, and when the bill comes before the Legislature, where everything must be done in full view of the people, and every member be required to show his hand, I look for a decided improvement.

The rejoinder of the Investigating Committee to the Memorial of Messrs. Gray and Smith is, I understand, prepared, and may be looked for to-morrow Mr. POTTER, one of the Committee, has been detained from his seat in the Assembly for two days past by a heavy cold. The Land Grant Committee will report to-morrow morning, and with their report comes the tug of war.

We have very fine and bright fall weather today

Presidential Proscription in Kansas.

THOS. C. SHOEMAKER, Receiver of Public Moneys in Kansas Territory, the only Free-State man among all the Federal office-holders in that Territory, has been removed. This is another blow at the freedom of speech and of opinion, by the President, to carry out the great principles of "Squatter Sovereignty," under the Kansas-Nebraska bill. Mr. SHOEMAKER was a Democrat, a friend of Judge DOUGLAS, from Illinois, and was the only Federal office-holder in Kansas Territory who was not subjugated and stripped of his manhood and independence by this border ruffian Administration. Mr. SHOEMAKER will take the stump in Illinois, and give a full exemplification of modern Democracy in Kansas

KNOW NOTHING NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK.—The Fillmore Know Nothings of New York have nominated for Governor, ERASTUS BROOKS, of the N. Y. Express, the original of Henry Ward Beecher's "dog Noble." It was understood some time since that an attempt at fusion would be got up—the Know Nothings agreeing to go for the Buchanan Electors, if the Buchanan men would vote for Brooks. The nomination of the latter is one step in the game, which can hardly win, however, for the Allied leaders will find that they cannot transfer the people, like cattle or slaves, at their will.

☞ The clipper ship Great Republic returned to New York on Monday, after an absence of nearly two years. She has been engaged by the French government in the transport service.—She has carried immense cargoes On her last trip from Sebastopol, she brought over 3,000 infantry, and a large corps of cooks, servants and waiters required for the commissary department; and this, too, with her lower hold full of guns of great size, shells, baggage, and the necessary water and provisions. In every port she has visited she has been thronged with visitors.

GERMAN FREMONT MEETING.—The Germans turned out in respectable numbers, last evening, to hear a good speech from Dr. Rauch, at the Camp House. It is something to see in our city an attentive and earnest audience of Germans listening to a good Republican speech Let the good work go on!

Messrs Domschke and H J. Paine, also addressed the meeting with good effect.

☞ The English papers announce the death of Rear-Admiral Sir John Ross, the celebrated Arctic navigator. He was in his 80th year, and up to the period of his brief illness, was strong and active to a surprising degree, considering the hard-ships to which he had been exposed in the many scenes, tying alike to mind and body, through which he has passed

☞ FRED. W. HORN is getting most of the delegates from Washington and Ozaukee Counties to the "democratic" Congressional Convention in the 3d district. The Washington Co. Democrat says that Fred.'s "anti-Barstow proclivities and principles are well known!"

(CONCLUDED)

VERONA, May 22, 1856.

The second day after leaving Alexandria we coasted along the island of Cythera, a place famed in mythology for being the favorite resort of Venus and the spot where that celebrated goddess rose from the Ocean. There are said now to be on the remains of a magnificent temple that was, in long times past, dedicated to her by the ancients Although a goddess, I cannot admire her taste in the choice of islands, for I saw next to no lonely and desolate.

As the sun was setting being directly ahead, for our course then was due west, I saw again one of these beautiful and gorgeous displays, which arises from the peculiarity of the atmosphere only found among the Ionian islands and in Egypt The whole sea was like a body of molten gold, while the entire western sky had just turned from crimson to the same beautiful hue. To give the scene still additional beauties, was the fact that just a few miles in advance of us on the shore, loomed up the ruined castle of Modon, built by the Venetians during the days of the Republic. The great arches and windows being open, they were filled with these bright and sparkling rays of light coming through horizontally, making the ruins appear much larger than they actually were, and picturing to the mind, as they stood out against the sky, the remains of works built by the deities of old, who were once supposed to inhabit these islands, rather than by mortal hands.

Half an hour more brought us to the bay of Navarino, in which, on the 18th of October, 1827 was fought the great naval battle of that name, between the Allied powers of Russia, France and England on one side, and Turkey on the other. This determined the fate of Greece, and from thenceforth she became independent of her ancient and hereditary enemies, the Turks. The battle was a most bloody one, lasting four hours. It is said that out of eighty-one vessels of war the Turks lost all but one frigate and fifteen small sized vessels. It was quite dusk; and I could only see the town in the distance. In front of the place is the island of Sphacteria, upon which he buried the remains of two noble and brave men, the gallant Count Rosa, a Piedmontese refugee, and Lucien Bonaparte. Navarino was the Pylos of the ancients, often spoken of in the Odyssey, and where dwelt the sage and venerable Nestor, the companion in arms of the great Ulysses. Here, too, came Telemachus, "with reverential awe" to learn from the wisdom and age of Nestor the fate of his father.

I regretted that we passed the classic shores of Ithaca in the night, for as there is little or no commerce at any of these places, steamboats do not stop. Consequently the traveller can only reach them in a sailing vessel, which is at a great sacrifice of time. But I am told that the character of the island, either in itself or inhabitants, has not materially changed since the time of Homer, when Ulysses says of them

"Low lies our site, yet blessed with fruitful stores;
Strong in her sons, though rocky are her shores,
And none, ah! none so lovely to my sight,
Of all the lands that lie even o'er spreads with light."

But I shall have space to call out a few spots only along the shores so interesting to the poet, scholar and general reader. In a few hours further along we passed the island of Leucadia The southern part is very rocky and precipitous. In the southwestern portion is a white broken cliff that projects out into the sea, some two thousand feet high This is called Sappho's Leap to this day, named after this divinity, who was disappointed in a passion that was mortal, and is no doubt,

"The very spot where sappho sang
Her sea-inspiring music, ere she sprung
Still holding on that fearful leap,
By her loved lyre, into the deep,
And dying, quenched the fatal fire
At once, of both her heart and lyre."

All this is very pretty, but I doubt whether at the present day there are any such direful cases for poets to chronicle. As the foot of this perpendicular rock tourists have found the remains of an ancient temple, supposed to be that of Apollo.

On the fourth day after leaving Alexandria about noon, the paddle-wheels of our noble steamer stopped for the first time, and we found ourselves in the harbor of Corfu. This is located on an island of the same name, and is the capital of the Ionian Republic. This Republic, so called, is composed of seven islands in the Ionian sea, and is governed, not by themselves, but by another island at some distance off, called Great Britain. There is no town, however small, in the Republic, but there may be found hordes of soldiers with red coats on. It is true they have a sort of parliament in which all the islands are represented, and who are elected by the people, but at the same time England is represented by a quasi Governor, who has the power of approving or ignoring any law passed by that body.

The city of Corfu is a quaint old town, and the architecture of the buildings, like the people, seem to be selected from all nations of the earth. In one part of the city there is a high summit, on which frowns a strong castellated fort, from the parapets of which are seen cannon bristling in every direction. As we had two or three hours to look around while the boat was receiving her coal, I at once repaired to the proper place and obtained a written pass to visit the fort. After toiling up through zigzag walls, lined with mortars and heavy ordnance and numerous sentinels, I at last reached the parapet. From here the view is magnificent. In front is a beautiful little islet covered with fortresses, cannon, and soldiers engaged in their drills. A few miles of green sea, and there loom up the Albanian mountains, which run along parallel to the coast, and whose high summits, even in this climate, are covered with snow. Yet the island of Corfu itself appears to be in a perpetual summer. All of the tropical fruits here grow in great luxuriance. I saw cart-loads of large, ripe oranges being brought in from the country by the donkeys. The leaves were mixed in with them, which, contrasting with their golden color, makes the fruit look beautiful, to say nothing of the luxury of eating them as they are gathered ripe and fresh from the trees. The mountains of the island are covered with a dark mass of luxuriant groves of Olive trees, interspersed with the Ilex, and occasionally the tall form of the cypress. All the tropical fruits, together with the mulberry, are cultivated in the valleys.

Not far from the city, according to tradition, is the fountain of Cressida, a fine large spring that gushes out of the earth, and empties itself into the sea. A north-west wind had driven Ulysses on to this island, and while straying the shore lamenting his fate, he saw a young and beautiful woman attended by a train of maidens, bathing in this fountain. She was the daughter of Alcinous. The hero, as tradition adds, was so smitten by her charms that he applied at her father's court for permission to marry her. But how "he wooed and won" her, the reader, for further particulars, must consult old Homer.

From here to Trieste, our route lay along the coast of Albania, a rude uncivilized people, who get a livelihood by robbing travellers and plundering vessels that happen to get cast away on their shores There are two or three points at which some of the smaller steamboats stop occasionally, but the country is poor and desolate. I am told that it is more unsafe than in Greece to travel in the interior, on account of the numerous brigands and robbers. They are said to go in large, formidable parties and defy the government to put them down There are many interesting ruins of ancient cities along the coast, which were built by the Greeks and Romans before the Christian era, but at the present time it is not safe to visit them. Therefore I stopped only one night at Trieste, and the next night I again listened to the exquisite music of the Austrian band on the great piazza of San Marco.

In coming from a heathen to a Christian country, I was profoundly impressed with the contrast. As I heard the bells of Christian churches once more ringing, heard the deep-toned peals of the organ once more filling the domes and great galleries of the cathedral, awakening in my own heart sensations that vibrated there as loud and solemn—seeing effigies high up on the walls, of those who have fought on the plains of Palestine, under the banner of the holy cross—paintings of martyrs who have suffered the most cruel death in defense of their sacred religion—seeing people upon the bended knee acknowledging their dependence upon the only true God, I felt devoutly thankful to that kind and superintending Providence which had safely brought me from Pagan to Christian lands. Mill Burned in Washington Co.

BARTON, Sept. 21, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The flouring mill of Cook & Eliot, on the Milwaukee river, in the town of Barton, was burned to the ground on the night of the 20 inst. The mill was new and one of the best in the county. The fire must have been the work of an incendiary, as there never had been any fire in or about the mill. As the fire broke out while Dr. LUDWIG was speaking, being a night of West Bend, it has been rumored here that politics has something to do with the matter. That there has been a great many outrages committed under the reign of Pierce and and Barstow, no honest man can doubt, yet I do not believe that any sane man in this vicinity thinks of adding this to the many crimes that the bogus democracy are guilty of. The mill was insured for $4,000, about one half its value. Cook & Elliot are young men, honest and energetic; in loosing their mill, they have lost all, excepting their good name and the good wishes of all that know them. There were thirteen tool chests burned in the mill; their value is estimated at $2,000 of which Hon. M. D. Delany lost $100.

A REPUBLICAN.

The Convention of the 2d—Francis A. Hoffman to be here!

The following letter from Hon. FRANCIS A. HOFFMAN, of Illinois, whom the Republicans of that State nominated as their candidate for Lt Governor, shows that he will be here on the 2d, if his health permits.

We are glad to learn that all of the railroads leading into this city have agreed to carry at half fare persons coming to attend the Convention, and we look for a large attendance from the country. Mr. Hoffman's letter is as follows, addressed to the President of the German Fremont Club.

LETTER FROM FRANCIS A. HOFFMAN.

[Translation.]

COTTAGE HILL, ILL., Sept. 20, '56.

MR. EDWARD DIEDRICHS,—

My house in Chicago send me here your letter of the 9th inst. I have been for some time seriously ill, and I am now here at my summer home for the purpose of recovering my health — It is very likely that I shall have to remain in bed for another week. I am now hardly able to write these few lines.

Although four invitations (Tippecanoe, Butterfield, Detroit and Pittsburg) beside yours, now lie before me, I shall regard it a great pleasure to be with you on the 2d of October, and to assist you with my feeble powers, if I am well enough to do it.

With great respect, yours,

FRANCIS A. HOFFMAN.

The above is a very full abstract of a half-column article in the News of yesterday, directed at us. Inasmuch as abuse by that paper hurts nobody, we have only to say to it—"Rail on!—The reservoir of billingsgate is probably not exhausted yet, and we hope the News will keep the faucet open, and let the stream run, so that it may exhaust the supply some time before election, and give some little attention to the true issue before the people, which is the extension or non extension of Slavery—its Nationalization or Sectionalization. We do not care a rush, and the people do not care, what the News thinks of us, except that, in its present temper, we would rather have its bad than its good opinion.

FIRE AT MENOMONEE FALLS.—On the night of the 19th, a destructive fire took place at Menomonee Falls, Waukesha Co. destroying a dwelling house belonging to Peter Smith, in which was the Post Office. Also another dwelling and shoe shop belonging to Francis Guive. Loss about $300. These facts are communicated by Mr. Hesk, the Postmaster, who saved the property belonging to the office.

LAND SALE IN KANSAS POSTPONED.—The sale of Delaware Trust Lands in Kansas Territory, which was to have commenced on the 20th day of October next, has been postponed to Monday, the 11th day of November, 1856, at which time the sale will take place at Fort Leavenworth.

☞ We see it stated that there are seven daily and fourteen weekly newspapers in California that support Buchanan; four dailies and eleven weeklies that support Fillmore, and not one that supports the name of Fremont!—Fond du Lac Union.

We are sorry that our friend of the Union read the Sentinel so carelessly. On the 19th we copied from the Alta Californica a statement that there were already six or seven Fremont papers, with a prospect of double the number before the end of last month.

JUDGE DOOLITTLE IN BUFFALO.—Judge DOOLITTLE spoke for Fremont with great effect in Buffalo one evening of last week. The Express says of the speech

The speech of the Hon. J. R. Doolittle was the most able and finished effort that we have had the pleasure of listening to since the campaign opened. We have no power of language to convey to the mind of the reader its real merits. It was received with great applause.

UNSATISFACTORY.—The News thinks that the whole report of the Investigating Committee "is more unsatisfactory than any such document it ever expected to see"

We think it likely.

NOTE FROM ALD. HAERTEL.—We are requested by Ald. Haertel to copy the following from the Free Democrat of last evening. In doing so, we state in justice to ourselves, that for what we stated in regard to his conduct at the meeting, we had the authority of two respectable citizens, who, we doubt not, will substantiate their statements, or acknowledge that they were wrong:

EDITOR FREE DEMOCRAT:—In a communication headed "Border Ruffianism in the 8th Ward," and signed "Spectator," published in your Journal of yesterday, my name appears among others, as having attempted to disturb the meeting of the 8th Ward Fremont Club. Permit me to say that said communication in reference to myself is entirely false, and a fabricated lie. I call upon Mr. Glaz, a prominent Fremont man, who sat within 2 feet of me during the main part of the meeting, to bear witness, if the "Spectator" or myself stated the truth. I remarked also to Mr. Webster, that I could not approve of any disturbance at public meetings, and said to Mr. Reise, who asked me to speak in the afternoon, that I came here as a spectator only.

Respectfully H. HAERTEL.

A Letter from Gov. Reeder on the Approaching Election of President, and the Candidates.

NEW YORK CITY, Sep. 18, 1856.

To the Editors of the Evening Post.

GENTLEMEN —The letter of your correspondent H., and your editorial comments upon it of the 16th inst., seem in common courtesy to demand a reply Your correspondent does not err in saying that I desire the success of the Republican party and the election of their candidate, and that I am ready to contribute any honorable effort to bring it about. This is not the result of any preference as to men, but in spite of it. With Col FREMONT I am unacquainted. I have never seen him, nor had any communication with him, direct or indirect, verbal or written. On the other hand, my feelings of friendship and admiration for Mr. Buchanan, as a man, are of no ordinary character, and are strengthened by years of friendly intimacy and reciprocal acts of kindness, uninterrupted to this time by a single misunderstanding or unpleasant feeling, and I would at any time defend him promptly and indignantly against personal attacks upon his reputation I believe him to be a man of distinguished ability, of high integrity and valuable experience. He is surrounded, too, in Pennsylvania by many political friends, whom personally I love and esteem, and to whom I am united by ties of long-cherished political and social intimacy, and the loss of whose friendship I should regard as a great calamity For more than a quarter of a century I have steadily labored with the Democratic party, and never doubted that I should do so during my life For years I have exerted myself to bring about Mr. Buchanan's nomination. In '18 and '52 I was one of those who carried for him the delegates of our district, and was his zealous and earnest supporter. On each occasion I was in the National Convention as one of his delegates.

These ties are exceedingly strong and hard to sever, especially with one who is naturally of a conservative cast, and slow to change old habits of thought and action, and I have resisted for months the convictions that were urging me to my present declaration. I have diligently sought reasons and arguments to save myself the pain of breaking up old associations and alienating myself from my old friends, but all in vain. My love of country and hatred of oppression would not allow my feelings and inclinations either to delude my judgment or still my conscience, and I am compelled to forfeit my self-respect by committing what I believe to be palpably wrong, or else on all myself in opposition to the Democratic part.

I see no reasonable hope of justice and sympathy in the people of Kansas in the success of the Democracy. In its ranks, and with the power to control its action, are found the Border Ruffian of Missouri and their accomplices of the South, who have trampled upon the Constitution and all the essential principles of our Government, robbed Kansas of its civil liberty and right of suffrage, laid waste its territory with fire and sword, and repudiated even civilization itself.

In its platform I find the enunciation of principles which would put the rope about the necks of men for exercising the constitutional right of petitioning Congress for a state government, or a redress of grievances far worse than those which led to the war of the Revolution, and a declaration stigmatizing as "armed resistance to law" the moderate and justifiable self-defense of men shamefully and infamously oppressed by ruffian violence and outrage, beyond all human endurance.

I find the whole party of the nation assembled in National Convention, with but one individual dissent expressing its "unqualified admiration" of an Administration which has lent itself as the tool and accomplice of all the wrongs inflicted upon Kansas, and by its venality and imbecility brought the country to an intesine war.

I find all its Representatives in Congress, with three individual exceptions, laboring in earnest zeal, by speech and vote, to cover up the iniquities of this Administration and the Border Ruffians of Missouri, and to suppress a fair investigation of outrages which shock both humanity and republicanism, and defy the Constitution and the laws.

I find these same representatives, after the truth was elicited in spite of their efforts, still refusing to relieve the people from a code of laws imposed upon them by a foreign army, and still refusing to admit them into the Union, only for reason which, in the cases of nine existing States, had been declared untenable and of no account.

I find them disregarding a free Constitution adopted in a legal, constitutional and time sanctioned manner, (and which no man can doubt to have reflected the will of the people,) and supporting a law to produce a substitute, by which it is easy to show would have been perpetuated in the State Government, the usurpation which had by force already seized upon the government of the Territory.

I find them refusing to make appropriations for the army, unless that army is to be used to enforce a code of laws violative on their face, of the Constitution, enacted by a Legislature in violation of the laws of the United States, and imposed by foreign force upon conquered and subjugated American citizens.

I find them, in a word, steadily aiding by all their Congressional action, to make a Slave State in northern latitudes, and that, too, against the will of its inhabitants.

I find that one member who more than any other stood out against the enslavement of his white fellow-citizens, is refused a renomination by the Democratic party of his district.

I find in the canvass now going on that the whole one of their party press is in the same direction When the first startling intelligence of the outrages in Kansas reached the States, their editor denounced the foul wrong in terms of bitterness and reprobation. It was but a spasmodic effort, however, and in deference to the South and the prevailing sentiment of the party, they have dropped off, one after the other, until now, so far as I am personally able to ascertain, there is not a Democratic paper which dares boldly to justify and defend the Free State party, and denounce their invaders. In place of encouragement and sympathy for their outraged fellow citizens from the North, there is little else than jeers and ridicule for their oppressed and suffering condition —misrepresentation of their motives and conduct, and a pretended incredulity of the statements and appeals which they send their brethren of the States.

I find their speakers exhibiting the same spirit —some of them ignoring the question entirely—others of them treating it with perversions, misrepresentations and false issues; and others taking openly the side of the oppressors; but no one of them advocating the cause of Kansas, or favoring her admission under the Free State Constitution adopted by her people.

In the public demonstrations and processions of the party, I find banners and devices containing brutal insults, in response to the appeals of that people for protection against unparalleled wrong, calculated, as no doubt they must be intended to prepare the masses for a continued refusal of justice and protection, and a relentless persuasion in outrage and oppression.

I find all the Democrats South, and a portion of the Democracy North, boldly repudiating the Kansas-Nebraska bill, by insisting that Slavery has a right to go into the Territories in spite of Congress or the people, and that the inhabitants of a Territory have no right to pass territorial laws to forbid it or exclude it. Democratic Representatives from Pennsylvania even, in the Senate and the House, hold and proclaim these opinions; while other Representatives from Pennsylvania, with Democratic leaders from other States, declare themselves publicly to be non-committal upon this heresy; the inevitable tendency of which it is easy to show, will be to prevent all resistance entirely the formation of any more Free States

Having originated a movement myself, to aid our people by sending them men and money; and having prosecuted it with the strictest avoidance of party character and a studied neutrality as to the political canvass, and having earnestly asked the cooperation of men of all parties, I have failed to enlist in it, to my knowledge, a single Democrat. In the Convention of Cleveland and Buffalo, called without distinction of party, in furtherance of this enterprise, there was no Democrat present but myself. This cannot have been from any want of generosity or of means, but only in deference to the prevailing tone and sentiment of the party which is enlisted upon the other side of the question. And not only have they abstained from aiding the movement, but in their presses and by their private influence they have endeavored to cripple and retard it by sneering at it, warning the community against it as treasonable, and declaring that the money would be misapplied, thus endeavoring to prevent contributions even from friends of the measure.

I might go on with this catalogue and enumerate other indications, if necessary, showing that the prevailing tone of the party is hostile to Kansas; but I consider it only necessary to add that what have said relates but to the North. The South where the great mass of the party is to be found, makes no pretension, as a whole, to the advocacy of anything but pure Border Ruffianism.

What, then, have the Free-State men of Kansas to expect from a Democratic Administration, even if presided over by Mr. Buchanan? If he could be left to act upon his own impulses, unaffected by external influences, and free from all pledges and obligations, express and implied, the case would be very different. But, unfortunately, this is not so. His election would right-fully be considered a decision against us, whatever may be his own private feelings. His offices at Washington, in Kansas and elsewhere, would necessarily, to a large extent, be filled with our enemies.

His information would come through a distorted medium; and lastly, he could not aid us without having first made up his mind to be abandoned and warred upon by his own party. The South would charge him with violating his pledges, and turn upon him with the bitterest hostility, and at least a portion of the Northern Democracy would follow their example. He would thus be left without a party to support his Administration, unless he should cast himself into the arms of the Republicans We cannot, it seems to me, either ask or expect him to do this upon a question where party lines are plainly drawn before his election. Like all other men in the same situations, he must obey the party sentiment on which he is elected. That there are Democrats in Pennsylvania who are full of indignation against the conduct of the South in regard to Kansas, I am well aware, and that they would use their influence to redress her wrongs I am well satisfied, but they are too few in proportion to the whole party of the Union to sustain his Administration in a war with his party. They have as yet been unable to make their opinions appear and be felt in the party, and, of course, cannot do so hereafter. I honor their good intentions, but I cannot believe in their power.

I repeat that I have been forced to these conclusions after no slight struggle with my feelings and inclinations. Should Mr. Buchanan be elected, and his administration be different from what my judgment compels me to believe, I shall give it my cordial approbation, and my feeble though willing support. As I believe now, I must regard the Democratic party as fully committed to Southern Sectionalism, toward which, for some time past, it has been rapidly tending, and I quit it, well assured that my duty to my country demands at my hands this sacrifice of personal feeling.

Very truly yours, A. H. REEDER.

A Grand Democratic Puzzle!

FAILURE AT TOLEDO!

The bogus democracy have been attempting for weeks the gathering of their hosts at Toledo, Ohio, and from its accessibility by railroad and steamboats, it was thought that they might succeed. The following private dispatch, received last night, tells the story;

TOLEDO, Sept. 24th.

TO THE SENTINEL.—The great Democratic Mass Meeting here to-day is a complete fizzle, about one thousand (1,000) people in attendance.

B.

The Know-Nothing State Mass Convention.

This affair was held yesterday. A little knot of half-a-dozen or so is said to have met on the Court House steps about noon, and adjourned till evening.

At evening, after the usual music, &c., in the streets, about 150 or 200 men and boys were found at the Court House, among them many of the Buchanan leaders and people, and a good many Fremonters, bent on seeing the thing.

L. Kennedy was Chairman, and C. Messerve Secretary.

Sundry resolutions, electing Fillmore and Donelson, were read.

L. W. Kennedy moved their adoption.

L. Kennedy made a speech in their favor, and was followed by C. R. Dakin, L. W. Kennedy, Mr. Brown, and Prof. Starks.

L. W. Kennedy's motion to adopt the resolutions was carried.

Several letters were read from K. N. magnates, all declining to attend the Convention. (Towards the close one was read from Mr. Fillmore, in which he said that he did not know there was an American in Wisconsin.)

L. Kennedy next pitched into the local editors for making fun of the K. N's.

L. W. Kennedy nominated the following electoral ticket:

At large; H. Ludington, T. A. Fairchild.

1st District—R. Chandler, 2d, Z. Rounds, 3d, R. Dart—carried.

L. W. Kennedy nominated S. Bishop for Congress—carried.

L. W. Kennedy nominated a State Committee —carried.

C. R. Dakin moved three cheers for the ticket, and the little squad cheered their best—there must have been at least 15 or 20 of them. And so ended the farce.

The Investigation.

In the first place, a great weight of responsibility rests upon the Legislature, or successive Legislatures, which for four years or more, neglected to authorize or set on foot an investigation into the condition of the State Treasury and School Land Departments. To such neglect on the part of the Legislature, the irregularities, or frauds, or whatever they may be, and finally, the several reported deficiencies are, in the main, attributable.

The above is from the Waukesha Plain Dealer, Barstow's home organ, in relation to the report of the Investigating Committee, and the defalcation in the Treasury Department. The cool impudence which it manifests can only be appreciated, when the fact is understood that the legislature of 1855 passed a bill providing for precisely such an investigation as the one had the present summer, and that bill was vetoed by Gov. Barstow on the express ground that it was designed to afford political capital for the Republican party at the then approaching State election—In other words he wished to be re-elected; the forty thief interest desired to continue for another term in power in order to complete the absorption of the School Fund; and this bill was vetoed because Barstow and his gang understood perfectly well that such an investigation would disclose a spectacle of corruption, malfeasance, fraud and downright theft and swindling which would arouse a whirlwind of popular indignation against those who had participated in plundering the state and school fund that would sweep them forever from the stage of politics, and frustrate all their schemes for new villanies, and for an extension of their reign of fraud and misrule.—Madison Journal.

WHOLESALE PLUNDERING.—The report of the financial investigating committee at Madison show up very hard things against some of the former State Officers. The evidence taken before the committee proves that there was a regular and systemized arrangement for stealing, all through Barstow's administration. There is no way of determining the exact amount of the deficiency, but it is undoubtedly immense.

The testimony does not show that Ex-Treasurer Jansson was at all concerned in the stealing operations, but it does show a decided laxity in official duties on his part. Suits were commenced against his bondsmen to recover the amount of the deficiency in the treasury, but owing to the neglect of Barstow in calling for quarterly statements from the Treasurer, the bondsmen, thirty in number, were all released. The effect is not probable that the State will ever get a cent from any of the sureties.—Wash. Co. Democrat.

HOW THEY REGARDED IT.—The Mineral Point Democrat, a strong advocate of Barstow's re-election last fall, seems to have had its eyes opened by the recent report of the Investigating Committee. It says:

"Looking upon them in the light of that report we can but regard a portion of the members of the last Administration as having been recklessly wicked. But much as they abused the positions they held, yet the blackest part of their record is in the fact that they have deceived the friends who gave them honor and station. To ask their party to further support them and their unworthy cause would be too much.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A horrible accident occurred about four miles southeast of Milton, on Monday morning last. A young man about eighteen years of age by the name of Smith, was working with a thrashing machine, when his leg caught in the joint connecting the rods and was torn completely off, about four inches below the knee —also fractured about the middle of the thigh bone.

The accident occurred about 9 o'clock in the morning. Drs. Chittenden and Dewey, of this city, in consultation with Drs. Borden and Fleming of Johnstown and Milton, saw him about four o'clock in the afternoon. His vital powers were so prostrated by the shock attending the accident, and the profuse hemorrage, that amputation was not deemed prudent. The unfortunate man died at half past 6 the same day.—Janesville Free Press.

They were both discharged, on promising to leave town; they would probably attend the Convention before leaving.

CIRCUIT COURT, SEPT. 23.

JUDGE RANDALL PRESIDING.

The ejectment suit, Belanger vs. Crocker still occupies the Court; to-day, we believe, is the seventh day; we see no prospect of its ending yet; like Paddy's rope, "the other end is cut off, ashore."

The Grand Jury are still in session; several persons were arraigned, and a large batch of indictments, 26 in number, presented by the Grand Jury, during the day.

New Publications.

LIFE OF GEO. WASHINGTON, by Washington Irving; Vol. II; G. P. PUTNAM & CO., N. Y., publishers.

We are indebted to A. WILSON, bookseller, for this, the second volume of Irving's last and best work, given to the public, in beautiful style, by Putnam & Co.: It comprises the history of the eventful period, from the time when Washington arrived to take command of the patriot army gathering around Boston, till the battle of Princeton, New Jersey. His connection with the great events which rapidly succeeded each other during the interval—his correspondence with the leaders of the revolutionary party—his plans of action—the plots and contrivances of the enemy—indeed the full history of the time which must of necessity be comprised in a just estimate of the generalship-chief, are set forth in Irving's best style. This work is a labor of love with him, and all must hope that he will be spared to make it complete, according to the plan which he has adopted.

"THREE PER CENT A MONTH, OR THE PERILS OF FAST LIVING," is the title of a handsome volume just published by Messrs. Derby & Jackson, New York. It is a work of fiction by Charles Burdett, well known to the reading public as the author of a large number of tales, many of which possess more than the usual merit of works of this class. The present work is a dramatic tale, the drift of which will be readily inferred from its title. Its plot is well conceived, and is naturally and easily carried out—But for the absorbing interest now felt in literature of a more political character, the present work would have been attended with a marked success. As it is, it deserves to be not overlooked by those who still seek a good work of fiction.

COLD SPRING COURSE.—The foot race of ten miles within the hour, was performed by Indian Smith over this course yesterday afternoon, with the following result:

1 mile	5.8
2 "	10.41
3 "	16.07
4 "	22.05
5 "	27.50
6 "	33.49
7 "	39.37
8 "	45.33
9 "	51.22
10 "	58.13

Smith had not been in train, and before the match was made ate a hearty meal of pork and cabbage, which he said might set him back a little; but he came to the scene, and performed the feat, evidently but little distressed. The track was in loose condition and the dust quite annoying. At the 8th mile the Indian remarked, as the bottle holder offered him refreshment, that it was an easy race and he required but little to strengthen him. He came in in good heart, and his backers offered to increase the distance a half mile, and go him again during the week.

THE "NORTH WESTERN" BAND.—This is the name adopted by the fine band which, under its able leader, Mr. KNOELL, has discovered such excellent music at various parades for some time past. It is now thoroughly organized, and tastefully uniformed, and the members propose to have a grand parade on Monday next, to which they have invited the several Military and Fire Companies, and in the evening they propose to give a musical entertainment, from the avails of which they hope to make something to pay their heavy expenses.

TO LUMBER MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS.

VALUABLE Property at private sale, situated on the Straits opposite Mackinaw, and on the Sheboygan River, containing about 13,000 acres of land; a large portion of which is heavily timbered with best quality of pine. The Shiawassee Company are laying out the village of DUNCAN; on the main land south Channel or pass, is a large steam Mill, of modern construction, with Siding Machine, Shingle and Lath Machines, and capable of manufacturing fifty thousand feet of lumber in 24 hours; also, Hotel, Land Office, Store, and sundry dwelling houses and Smith shop. The Sheboygan Steam Mill, on and near the mouth of Sheboygan River. The Sheboygan Water Mill, one mile from the mouth, with dwelling houses, barns, &c. At Duncan a Pier is erected, extending outto a sufficient depth of water to accommodate any vessel navigating the Lakes. This is admitted by navigators, by reason of the bay and Pier, to be the best Lake Harbor between Detroit and Chicago—it is a desirable Wooding and Coaling Point, being on the direct route to Propellers and sailing vessels. This property is desirable as a point at which a town must soon grow up, as the country back of it is fast filling up, for many miles, with settlers.

The Sheboygan Water Mill has the entire power of Sheboygan River, a never failing stream of great volume, which never freezes; the dam being at the falls of the river, is easily kept in repair. This is the most valuable water privilege in the State of Michigan, north of Grand Rapids.

To a company or individuals, desirous of entering into the lumber trade, this property offers rare inducements, with a certainty of greatly increased value in a very few years, and will be sold much below original cost, or present value, to a purchaser.

GREAT and extensive sale of all the Machinery, Engines, Tools, Patterns, Irons, Moulds, and everything of every character whatever, which are now in use in the Menomonee Locomotive Foundry, in the Fifth Ward, I will commence to sell the same on the 8th day of October next, and will continue sale from day to day, until all and every article is sold. The said Company having now been dissolved. The amount of machinery, tools, &c., &c., cost upward of Forty thousand dollars, but it will be sold for whatever it will bring. All who are engaged in such establishments had best be on hand. CALEB WALL,

City Auction Room and Land Office.

A VALUABLE new Brick House and lot, Sec. 29th Ward, on Marshall st., to be sold at public auction on Thursday, October 2d, at 10 o'clock P. M., unless a portion of the money can remain for a short time. The house is entirely new, finished last fall, and is complete in every particular. On the first floor there is a large hall, two large parlors, sitting room, library room, dining room, kitchen pantry. Second story, five large sized chambers, third story or attic, three bed rooms. All the rooms are furnished in the best and latest style. The house is lit with gas throughout; it is also finished off with bathing rooms, &c., &c. In fact there is every comfort and convenience about the house one wants or desires. It was built in the very best of manner. It will not fail to sell; but owing to unforeseen events, the owner is compelled to sell it, owing to other arrangements and engagements which he has entered into. The said house is the one immediately north, joining Wm. B. Hibbard's house on Marshall st. It is useless for me to say that Marshall st. is one of the pleasantest and handsomest streets in the city of Milwaukee, and there is no street where property is so valuable and the neighborhood so desirable. The grading of the streets, and the paving of the gutters is all completed. In a word, it is a very choice place, and it must and will be sold for its value to be sold and that, for cash. So all who want a good house in a good neighborhood, attend the sale. A few days will be given after the sale the sale to allow the purchaser to raise the money which, if he wants, he, no doubt, can easily do, by giving a mortgage on said property. But five per cent. cash will be required to be paid down, at the day of sale.

GREAT SALE of valuable Lots in Wright's Addition, joining Sherman's Addition, in 6th Ward; it is well known, (and those who do not know it ought to know it) that there is no part of the 6th Ward filling up so rapidly and permanently as Sherman's Addition—all along Third street, up to where Wright's Addition commences are stores of various kinds, and it is a beautiful location, not to be surpassed. In fact, there is no property, in any portion, which is now offered for sale, which holds out such inducements for those who are to secure themselves a home, and those who have money to money to invest, as the lots in Wright's Addition. Remember that Wright's Addition commences on the east side of above Beaubean street in Shermans Addition; another fact, the lots in Wright's Addition are full, old fashioned, sized lots, which are now being offered for sale. I will, in a few day's, have plans of said Addition, which can be obtained at my store. The sale of said property will take place on Tuesday, October 6th at at 10 o'clock, at my store.

The terms are as follows:

¼ cash, balance in 1 and 2 years, at 7 per cent interest, or, ¼ cash, balance in 1, 2 and 3 years, at 8 per cent int., or, 1-3 cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, at 10 per cent interest.

Persons have their choice of terms.

Title is the best in the world.

I will sell it at a grand bargain, and possession given next Tuesday. It is in a choice neighborhood. All the money to pay down will be about $1,500. MILWAUKEE, - - WISCONSIN.

THE proprietors of the Milwaukee Commercial College would respectfully announce that the liberal patronage that has been extended to this deservedly popular enterprise has led them to extend the field of study, so that it will embrace every branch of a thorough Commercial Education. As there are no classes formed in any department of study—thereby enabling the student to enter any time, each one receiving separate instruction—the student, on entering, is placed in the Counting Room, with actual transactions to work from, thus making his education not merely theoretical, but practical to the last degree. The Commercial Course comprises Book-Keeping by Double Entry, in its various forms, as adapted to Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Manufacturing, Custom House, Banking, Railroading, in stock, partnership, and compound Company business. Commercial Calculations in per centage, Exchange, Bank and Regular Discounts, Averaging, Accounts by Simple and Compound Equations, &c., according to the most approved methods. Commercial Correspondence, including account sales, account currents, drafts, bills of exchange, &c., &c.

Also, a perfect system of detecting Counterfeit Bank Notes, will be given to each student.

A good Hand Writing guaranteed to every person completing a full course.

THE EAGLE
STEAM FOUNDRY!
—OF—
TURTON & SERCOMBE,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304 West Water St.

IS STILL IN FULL BLAST, WORKING DAY AND night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other Blasts.

In order the better to do this, the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their Stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of —horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this

The Oldest Establishment in the State

the Proprietors refer to that in succession through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as any men in the trade.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principles.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GRADE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.

They are also Agents for RAFFELL'S PATENT STEAM GAUGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continuance of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, knowing them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."
